

Wyoming County's Barn Quilts...

The Wyoming County Barn Quilt Trail began in 2016 thanks to the efforts of local citizens, businesses and artisans seeking to introduce visitors to their magnificent works of art.

There are many barn quilts in Wyoming County, over 90 of which are highlighted in this trail. Each quilt is unique, and has a name reflecting its purpose and message. It not only stands alone as a beautiful piece of artwork, but its placement on the home or business makes it an integral focal point of the spectacular landscape found throughout Wyoming County!

Do You Have A Barn Quilt?...

If you have a barn quilt at your home or business and it is visible from the road, tell us all about it! We may include your quilt in future publications.

What's A Barn Quilt...?

A barn quilt is a large piece of wood that is painted to look like a quilt block.

The size of squares vary, but usually are four, six and eight feet in size. After being painted, the squares are hung outside on barns, houses, garages and other buildings.

The majority of barn quilts are comprised of simple geometric shapes, like squares, rectangles and triangles. They are usually painted in solid colors, however different painting techniques can make the square look like fabric. The unique shapes and vibrancy of solid colors allow the squares to stand out.

History Of Barn Quilts & Trails...

Quilt squares were a form of folk art that people used to decorate their barns and or other structures. Squares are an expressive outlet for the artist, while telling a story and paying homage to the history of quilt squares. A wide variety of groups and artists have created quilt squares, including quilt guilds, schools, churches, and 4-H clubs.

In the early 2000's, barn quilts experienced a resurgence which continues to this day. Due to their popularity, the first official quilt trail was created in 2001 in Ohio.

A traditional quilt trail contains many quilt squares in close proximity for visitors to enjoy. Those following along the trail have the ability to go from location to location, traveling the countryside to see all of the blocks.

Today there are trails all over the US and Canada!
